In the evening an elaborate banquet was served at the Racine Hotel.

The Buffalo Engineering Society met the party at the docks and acted as an escort.

ENGINEERS' CLUB OF CINCINNATI.—At the meeting of this club, held Sept. 15, Mr. W. Hildenbrand, who has had charge of the remodeling of the suspension bridge at Cincinnati, read a very interesting paper describing the work; the principal features of which consisted in the putting up of two additional cables, the entire reconstruction of the trusses and floor, the widening of the roadway and footwalks, the lengthening of the approaches and improvement in the grades. This was all accomplished without interfering with or interrupting the heavy travel of electric cars, vehicles and pedestrians. J. F. Wilson, Secy.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS.—The 127th meeting of this society was held at the house of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, New York city, Sept. 28 The Secretary, Mr. R. W. Pope, read the paper of the evening on "The Photometry of the Enclosed Alternating Arc," by Messrs. C. P. Matthews, W. H. Thompson and J. B. Hilbish, of Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., which was a report of a series of experiments conducted by the authors to determine something of the behavior of the alternating enclosed arc lamp. An abstract of the paper and discussion is given elsewhere in this issue.

CHICAGO ELECTRICAL ASSOCIATION.—The secretary of this association, Mr. J. R. Cravath, has issued the following list of the papers to be presented at the fall meetings: Oct. 7, "Electrical Features of the Late Spanish-American War," Thos. G. Grier; Oct. 21, "Practical Points on Electrical Measurement," W. B. Hale; Nov. 4, "The Electrical Equipment of a Model Printing Establishment," George A. Damon; Nov. 18, "The Development of the Motor-Cycle," F. B. Rae; Dec. 2, "Practical Points in Street Railway Engineering," W. A. Harding; Dec. 16, "Wireless Telegraphy," Arthur V. Abbott; Jan. 6, "Telephone Engineering—Some Problems, Solved and Unsolved," S. G. McMeen; Jan. 20, "Observations on Ventilating Fans," Gerard Swope.

THE NATIONAL RAILROAD MASTER BLACKSMITHS' ASSOCIATION.—This association held its 6th annual meeting at the American House, Boston, Mass., Sept. 6-8. Reports from committees on the following subjects were received: "Handling Scrap Materials;" "Locomotive Forging;" "Furnaces;" "Making and Repairing Frogs and Crossings;" Making and Repairing Locomotive Frames;" and "Making and Repairing Track Tools." Mr. Geo. F. Hinkens read a very complete paper on "Compressed Air in the Blacksmith Shop," and also one on "How to Get the Best Results in Working Tool Steel—High and Low Carbon." Papers were also read by Mr. G. L. Lindsay on "The Best Method of Repairing Locomotive and Car Springs," and Mr. N. B. Meissimer, on "Flues and the Best Method of Repairing Lap and Butt Welding."

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Pres., W. W. McLelland, D. & R. G., Denver, Colo.; First Vice-Pres., G. F. Hinkens, St. P. & D., Gladstone, Minn.; Second Vice-Pres., G. A. Geuthner, Bost. & Me., Boston, Mass.; Secy. and Treas., A. L. Woodworth, C. H. & D., Lima, Ohio. Milwaukee, Wis., was decided upon as the next place of meeting.

AMERICAN PUBLIC HEALTH ASSOCIATION.—The 26th annual meeting of this association was held at Ottawa, Ont., on Sept. 27. About 100 delegates were present. A resolution was adopted recommending the appointment of an American, Canadian and Mexican Commission to arrange to have the Berthilon system of disease classification adopted by the three countries.

A paper entitled "Short-History of Sewage Disposal at the Asylum for the Insane, London, by Dr. R. M. Burke, was read. The sewage of this institution, about 75,000 gallons daily, is forced by a centrifugal pump, upon filter beds which, during freezing weather, are kept soft enough to absorb the water by the heat in the sewage. Fruit and vegetables valued at $200 per acre have since been raised upon the ground.

Mr. Thomas McFarlane, Dominion Analyst, read a paper on "The Disposal of Sewage in Some European Cities," which was followed by a paper entitled "Most Recent Methods of Sewage Disposal," by C. G. Houlyky, and others on "The Filtration of Sewage," by Capt. W. F. Van Buskirk; "The Interpretation of the Chlorine Member in Well Water," by A. McGill; and "The Farm Well," by Frank Shutt.

The afternoon was spent in driving about the city inspecting points of interest, and in the evening a reception was held at the City Hall.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

AMERICAN STREET RAILWAY DIRECTORY AND BUYERS' MANUAL. First edition. Quarterly. New York: E. L. Powers. Paper; 6 x 9¼ ins.; pp. 82.

This is the first issue of a publication which will be issued quarterly in the future. In includes a complete list of electric, cable, horse and elevated railways in the United States and Canada, in which the names of all the principle officials, mileage, gage of track, number of cars, etc., are given.

The directory is well arranged, neatly printed and will doubtless be welcomed by every dealer in street railway supplies.

REPORT OF THE BUREAU OF MINES OF THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO.—Vol. VII. Third Part. 1898. Archibald Blue, Director of the Bureau, Toronto, Ont. Pamph.; pp., 60, with several maps, diagrams and photographs.

This report contains some papers of interest to mining engineers and others, as follows: "Economic Geology of Eastern Ontario," being a report on corundum and other minerals, by Prof. W. G. Miller. "Analyses of Corundum and Corundum-Bearing Rock," by Dr. W. L. Goodwin. "The Concentration of Corundum," by Prof. Courtenay de Kalb. "Water Powers of Ontario," by Thomas W. Gibson. "Placer Gold on Vermillion River," by A. H. Gracey. The statistics of mineral production of Ontario for 1897 make a most meager exhibit, considering the undoubtedly great mineral wealth of the Province. They are as follows: Gold, $190,244; nickel, $359,651; copper, $200,067; iron ore, $4,869; pig iron, $288,129.

ELECTRIC STREET RAILWAY HISTORY.—Part I. The Westinghouse Electric & Mfg. Co. Pamph.; 6x9 ins.; pp. 38; illustrated.

This pamphlet tells a most interesting pictorial history of the development of the Westinghouse railway motor, from the old two-pole No. 1 motor, through the four-pole No. 3, No. 12 A, No. 38, No. 38 B, No. 49, to the latest type, No. 50. In these pictures several views of the motor in question are given so that an idea of outside and inside construction and the method of suspension can be gained. As a fitting accompaniment, several illustrations of railway generators and switchboards and the Westinghouse alternating, direct-current system of power transmission are included. These show rotary converters, transformers, etc. In conclusion, a number of interior views of the company's factory and several railway plants using Westinghouse apparatus are shown.

TRADE PUBLICATIONS.

ALLEGHENY & WESTERN.—S. H. Lea, Res. Engr., Adrian, Pa., informs us that track-laying has been commenced at the eastern end of this line where several miles of grading have been finished. Good progress is being made on the piers for the bridge across the Allegheny River, at Mosgrove, Pa.; work is also being carried on night and day on the "Big Cut" at Lyons farm, containing over 250,000 cu. yds. of material. The stretch of six miles from the Lyons Cut to the Allegheny River is one of the heaviest pieces of work in this country. There are to be two steel viaducts within 1½ miles of Adrian. One of these will have a maximum height of 95 ft.; the other is 102 ft. at its highest point. At the "Devil's Gulch," one mile east of Adrian, is a steep culvert with a fall of more than 40 ft.; over this culvert is an embankment 100 ft. high. The remainder of the line to the river is extremely heavy, and is such as may be termed titanic. The maximum gradient is 1%, compensated for curvature. The rails are 100 lbs. to the yard, and are made by the Carnegie Steel Co.
